This contract is made between the individual(s) listed above and in the case of a minor child their parent or guardian (hereinafter "Member(s)") and West Orange Tennis Club (hereinafter "Club"). It entitles those individual(s) to outdoor court usage based solely on availability at rates as more specifically enumerated herein. It makes no other promises of any kind whatsoever included but not limited to improved tennis skills, increased fitness levels, success in any competitive play or guarantee of assignment to a specific court.

If Club facilities or any part thereof are closed as a result of inclement weather, natural disasters, governmental orders or other forces beyond the reasonable control of Club and such closure interferes with Club's performance of this Contract, Club management may at its sole discretion provide additional time to compensate for this interference but will have no obligation to do so and the Club management's failure to do so shall not entitle the Member(s), to any compensation, refund or give rise to any cause of action against the Club.

At its sole discretion, Club management reserves the right to cancel any court availability as enumerated herein. To compensate for this cancellation, Club will provide, solely of its own choosing, either a refund for that period cancelled or additional court time.

Except as set forth above, Club has no obligation to refund or prorate any fees paid under this contract under any circumstances whatsoever. However, if Player(s) cannot use their court time, Club may provide a make-up for the date(s) missed but will have no obligation to do so.

Failure to provide all information, including signature(s), required under this contract and any applicable deposits will result in the contract not being honored, deposits being forfeited, and court(s) being made available for purchase by others.

At its sole discretion, Club management reserves the right to reject any contracts prior to their execution by the Club.

Should any governmental agency impose any tax applicable to the activities as described herein, Member(s) listed on this contract will be responsible for paying the same.

The club may at any time photograph and/or video record programs for future possible use in social and other media campaigns or advertising. Members(s) consent to their being captured, without compensation, for the aforementioned potential uses.

Members(s) must abide by all Club rules whether or not contained in this Contract. Club reserves the right to remove Member(s) from any club program/offering for conduct that is deemed detrimental to other Member(s), staff, or property.
