This contract is made between the individual(s) listed above (hereinafter "Player(s)") or in the case of a minor child their parent or guardian and West Orange Tennis Club (hereinafter "Club"). It entitles those individual(s) to only the program, time, and rates as more specifically enumerated herein. It makes no other promises of any kind whatsoever included but not limited to improved tennis skills, increased fitness levels or success in any competitive play.

If Club facilities or any part thereof are closed as a result of inclement weather, natural disasters, governmental orders or other forces beyond the reasonable control of Club and such closure interferes with the Club's performance of this Contract, Club may at its sole discretion provide additional time to compensate for this interference but will have no obligation to do so and the Club's failure to do so shall not entitle the Player, the parent or the guardian to any compensation, refund or give rise to any cause of action against the Club.

Club has no obligation to refund or prorate any fees paid under this contract under any circumstances whatsoever.

Failure to provide all information, including signature(s), required under this contract and any applicable deposits will result in the contract not being honored and deposits being forfeited.

At its sole discretion, Club management reserves the right to reject any contracts prior to their execution by the Club.

Should any governmental agency impose any tax applicable to the activities as described herein, Player(s) or parent or guardian listed on this contract will be responsible for paying the same.

Club may at any time photograph and/or video record programs for future possible use in social and other media campaigns or advertising. You consent to your or your minor child's image being captured, without compensation, for the aforementioned potential uses.

Player(s) and parent(s)/guardian(s) must abide by all club rules whether or not contained in this Contract. Club reserves the right to remove Player(s) and/or parent(s)/guardian(s) from the program for conduct that is deemed detrimental to other Players, camp staff or property.

Minor Players will only be released by Club to Player's parent/legal guardian, or to a person that has been identified and designated as authorized pickup/emergency contact (above). Government issued ID may be required prior to Player's release. In the event of an emergency, parent/guardian will be notified.

To reserve your program week(s), payment in full must be made prior to Player beginning the program.
